

Viktor Shmatko

Senior Frontend Engineer

SUMMARY

Hi, I'm Viktor Shmatko, a Front-End Developer with experience building modern, user-focused web applications. I work with HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript, TypeScript, React, Astro, Next.js, and Redux, creating adaptive and responsive interfaces with clean, maintainable code. I use Tailwind CSS, shadcn/ui, Radix UI, and Material UI to build scalable products, and I focus on code quality, usability, delivery, and continuous professional growth.

HOBBY

I'm a cyclist, and somehow most of my friends ended up on bikes too. I collect commemorative coins from the National Bank of Ukraine — no idea why, just doing it. And I'm addicted to caffeine in the morning, noon and evening, so best talk to me after my first cup.
